

N.C.C. Thursday - March 10, 2005

LEAN RIVERS HASTY
JUNG

Mrs. Lean Rivers Hasty Jung, age 87 of Palestine, went home to be with her Lord and Savior Friday, March 4, 2005. Mrs. Jung was born September 13, 1917 in Midway, to Thomas Jefferson Lambert and Frances Stewart Lambert.

Mrs. Jung was a faithful member of Westside Assembly of God for 50 plus years. Mrs. Jung was a past president of W.M. Sunday School Superintendent and taught Sunday School Classes over the years. Mrs. Jung retired from T.G. & Y. as Assistant Manager after 20 years.

Survivors include her son Harold C. Hasty and wife Shirlene (Sissy) Hasty, of Corrigan; daughter Jean Turbyfill and husband Wilson Wayne, of Elkhart; granddaughters Megan Leigh Hasty, of Palestine, Krystal Bowman, of Corrigan and Jen Thomas, of Little Rock, Ark.; grandsons Rodney Hasty Woody, of Kilgore and Christopher (Brian) Hasty, of Corrigan; and great-grandson Troy Hasty Wilson, of Palestine.

Preceded in death by her parents Thomas Jefferson and Frances Stewart Lambert; first husband and our dad Clifton Hasty whom she was married to for 50 years; also by beloved husband of 10 years, Rudolf Jung; son Donald Hasty; grandson Kevin Hasty Wilson; great-grandson Jerad Hasty Wilson; three sisters; and four brothers.

Funeral services for Mrs. Lean Rivers Hasty Jung were held Monday, March 7, at 10:00 a.m. at Bailey & Foster Chapel with the Rev. Larry Tilmon officiating. Interment followed at Roselawn Park.

Pallbearers were Brit Puzey, Herman Linam, Ted Linam, Don Roe, John Marks and C.J. Bayless.

Honorary Pallbearer was C.L. Wallace.

In lieu of flowers memorials may be made to the Westside Assembly of God Building Fund, 2703 West Oak Street, Palestine, TX. 75801.

Bailey & Foster Funeral Home