MYRLE DEAN BEAZLEY
KALTWASSER

Mrs. Myrtle Dean Beazley Kaltwasser, age 98 of Crockett, passed away Sunday, June 3, 2007 in the Houston County Nursing Home. Mrs. Kaltwasser was born June 15, 1908 in Houston County and has been back in Crockett since 1974. Mrs. Kaltwasser was a housewife and a member of the Open Door Baptist Mission. Mrs. Kaltwasser's hobbies were fishing, playing dominoes, winning first, second and third place trophies at 42 tournaments, she spent many hours crocheting and making angel pins out of pearl beads. Mrs. Kaltwasser was involved in the Historical Society with Eliza Bishop and worked to get Reynard Historical Markers. You would often find her sitting in her porch sewing and reading with her kittens, Fuzzy Socks and Baby, lying at her feet. Mrs. Kaltwasser seldom met a stranger as she always made all who knew her welcome anytime you called, met her at the Senior Citizens Center or just grocery shopping.

Survivors include her son John D. Wisdom and wife Tina, of Longview; daughter Marie Isget Westbrook, of Kennard; grandsons Jimmy E. Isget, of Houston, Johnny W. Wisdom and wife Debbie, of Gilmer, John D. Wisdom, Jr. and wife Roberta, of Ocoee, Fla.; granddaughter Crystal D.
