

Trinity Standard
July 6, 2000

Antioch
Lovelady

703/64

Annie Willis Keels

TRINITY -- Services for Mrs. Annie Willis Keels, 78, of Trinity were held at 2 p.m. Monday, July 3, 2000 in the Callaway-Allee Memorial Chapel in Huntsville with the Rev. Dennis Graham officiating.

Burial followed in the Lovelady Antioch Cemetery.

Mrs. Keels died Friday, June 30, in the Huntsville Memorial Hospital.

Born Dec. 1, 1921 in Anderson County, she had resided in Trinity since 1954. She was a homemaker and a member of the Pinewoods Baptist Church.

Mrs. Keels was preceded in death by a son, Roy Edward Keels, and a daughter, Darlene Keels.

Survivors include her husband, Low Keels of Trinity; a son, Norman Keels of Huntsville; two daughters and a son-in-law, Loraine Pierce of The Woodlands and Linda and Johnny Peavey of Trinity; a brother, Sam Willis of Palestine; eight grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; and a number of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home of Huntsville directed the arrangements.