

Kenneth Jewell Kimbley

LIVINGSTON – Funeral services for Kenneth Jewell Kimbley were held Monday, March 12, 2007, at Glen Haven Memorial Chapel in Dayton, Ohio. Visitation was held Thursday, March 8, at Pace Funeral Home in Livingston.

He died March 7 in Lufkin Memorial Medical Center.

He was born May 25, 1928 in Equality, Ky. Mr. Kimbley loved to garden and tinker with his tractors, but his greatest love was for his grandchildren, who were the light of his life. He was known to be a wonderful “PawPaw” to them.

Preceding him in death were his parents, Charles and Nola McConnell Kimbley; his brothers, Charles and Boss Kimbley and sister, Thelma Harper.

Survivors include his wife of 52 years, Hazel Ball Kimbley; sons, Timothy and wife Jane of Ohio and Tommy and wife Jeannie of Onalaska; daughter, Cynthia Clayton and husband Terry of Livingston and grandchildren, Janet Funderburg of Ohio, Kenneth W. Kimbley of Kentucky and Lucy A. Kimbley of Livingston.

Interment was in Glen Haven Memorial Garden Cemetery in Dayton, Ohio.
