

Mrs. Doris
Marie Deavers
Kennon

Services for Mrs. Doris Marie Deavers Kennon were held at 11:00 a.m. Saturday, Aug. 10th in St. Timothy Episcopal Church with Reverend James E. Flowers, Jr. officiating. Burial followed in Forest Lawn Memorial Park, under the direction of Hixson Brothers, Pineville.

Mrs. Kennon, 74, of Alexandria died Tuesday, August 6, 2002, in Good Shepherd Medical Center, Longview.

She was a member of Calvary Episcopal Church, Richmond. Mrs. Kennon was employed as coordinator for the Retired Senior Volunteer Service Program. She was past president of the Business Professional & Business Women's Club and was co-chair for the fundraisers campaign for the Heart Institute in Houston.

She was preceded in death by, husband, Milton Wallace "Wally" Kennon; parents, William Deavers and Elisabeth Trotter; brother, Sonny Deavers.

She is survived by two sons, Wallace Bruce Kennon of Spartanburg, South Carolina, James Daniel Kennon of Sulphur Springs; daughter, Candy Henry of Liberty City; step-mother, Frances Deavers of Baton Rouge; brothers, George Trotter of Alabama; Tommy Deavers of Baton Rouge and Johnny Trotter of Pollock; six sisters, Evelyn Terral of Alexandria, Jackie Trotter of Colfax, Nancy Griffin of Colfax, Peggy Hughes of Memphis, TN., Ann Barron of Oak Grove, LA, and Souzen Steelhammer of Mississippi; five grandchildren; beloved friends Pat & Malcolm Hebert of Alexandria.