

HCC
Jan 2, 2005

VIRGIL T. KING

Mr. Virgil T. King, age 71 of Tennessee Colony, passed away Tuesday, December 28, 2004 at his residence. Mr. King was born July 8, 1933 in Waggner, Oklahoma to Virgil and Ollie Mae Fields King. Mr. King was self employed as a construction contractor in the Houston area for many years. Mr. King was a member of the Church of Christ. Mr. King was a member of the Carpenters Union Local 213, and the Benchrest Shooters Association of Houston and served in the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict.

Survivors include his wife Lois M. King, of Tennessee Colony; daughters Janice Broussard, of Katy, Judy Harman, of Houston and Jeanie White, of Pearland; seven grandchildren Trey Harman, Travis Broussard, Evann Broussard, Connor Broussard, Kelsey White, Shelby White and Kalley White; nieces and nephews Susan Mason, Wayne Milum and Wendell Milum.

Preceded in death by his parents, and sister Dorothy Mae Milum.

Funeral services for Mr. Virgil T. King were held Thursday, December 30, at 3:00 p.m. at Bailey & Foster Chapel with John Thompson from the Frankston Church of Christ officiating. Interment followed in Liberty Hill Cemetery near Frankston.

Bailey & Foster Funeral Home

