

HCC
5-14-2000

Evergreen
Crockett

MR. JOE DYER KLORES

Mr. Joe Dyer Klores, age 77, passed away May 10, 2000 in Crockett. He was born April 24, 1923 in Alvin, to Charles and Ricie (Davenport) Klores. He lived for the past six months in Crockett and for many years in Also and Houston. He worked as a dairyman for 60 years and retired from the Texas Highway Department.

Survivors include: wife; Pear Klores of Crockett; sons, Joe David Klores of Alto, Jimmy Dee Klores of Tomball; daughters, Tina R. Higginbotham of Cripple Creek, Co., Tammy R. Higginbotham of Crockett; grandchildren, Amy Hodges, Casey Klores, Kaleb Higginbotham, Jayme Klores, Joshua Klores, Jarrod Higginbotham, Jayna Higginbotham; great-grandchildren, Collin Ray Hodges. Pall bearers; Jody Klores, Jim Klores, Raymond Klores, Casey Klores, Arnold Hodges, Donald Higginbotham.

Graveside services for Joe Dyer Klores, was Saturday, May 13, 2000 at 10 a.m. at Evergreen Cemetery in Crockett, with Rev. Otis Byers officiating. Services are under the direction of O.T. Allen & Son Funeral Home in Alto.