

*Antioch
Lovelady*

FESSEL B. "BOB"
KOEPNICK

Fessel B. "Bob" Koepnick, age 87 of Tyler, formerly of Houston County, passed away Monday, July 5, 2004 in the Briarcliff Health Center in Tyler. Mr. Koepnick was born August 31, 1916 in Palestine and had been living in Tyler, previously living most of his lifetime in Houston County. Mr. Koepnick was a veteran and had served during World War II. Mr. Koepnick was a retired television repairman and was a member of the Non-Denominational Church.

Survivors include his son James Koepnick, of Dripping Springs; daughter Pauline Smith and husband Carl, of Houston; step-daughter Stella Wolfe and husband Roger, of Tyler; step-son Bill Williams and wife Anita; seven grandchildren; four step-grandchildren; sixteen great-grandchildren; eight step-great-grandchildren; numerous nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Preceded in death by his wife Hazel Koepnick; and son Wilhelm Koepnick.

Graveside funeral services for Mr. Fessel B. "Bob" Koepnick were held Thursday, July 8, at 2:00 p.m. in the Lovelady Antioch Cemetery with Pastor Bob Williams officiating. Interment followed.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home