

Nancy Evelyn Kovaly

TRINITY -- A memorial service for Nancy Evelyn Kovaly, 71, of Trinity were held at 2 p.m. Sunday, Sept. 30, 2001, in the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home in Trinity.

Mrs. Kovaly died Friday, Sept. 28, in Huntsville.

She was born in Trinity, the daughter of the late Alexander Travis McWilliams and Birdy Lee O'Donnell. Mrs. Kovaly attended the University of Southern California and worked as a nursing assistant. She was known for her love of her family, especially her grandchildren.

Mrs. Kovaly was preceded in death by her husband, Steve Kovaly, and Amanda Thompson and Janie Thompson.

Survivors include three sons and their spouses, Charles and Nancy Thompson, James and Linda Thompson and Freddie and Sonnye Thompson; two daughters and their spouses, Kim and Harold Johnson and Eve and Bill Brinkley; 14 grandchildren, Amanda Dixon, Charlie Thompson, Joel Wilson, Shawna Garcia, Tracy Sample, Jack Thompson, Jim Thompson, Tracy Lezak, Julie Thompson, Kim Johnson, James Robert Johnson, Scott Allen, Kenneth Johnson and Bill Brinkley; and 12 great-grandchildren, Nathan Thompson, C.J. Thompson, Ashley Dunaway, Jordan Garcia, Tyler Garcia, Hannah Sample, Tyler Lezak, Austin Gregory, Avery Tindal, Jason Tindal, James Johnson and Jewel Johnson.

The family has asked that memorial contributions be made to the American Cancer Society.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home and the arrangements.