

Trinity
Standard
12-7-06

Leon Michael Krusleski

HOUSTON — Funeral services for Leon Michael Krusleski, 72, of Houston were held at noon on Tuesday, Nov. 28, 2006, at the Chapel of Heights Funeral Home in Houston.

Burial followed in the Forest Park Lawndale in Houston.

Mr. Krusleski died Saturday, Nov. 25.

He was born Sept. 29, 1934 and began working for the Houston Chronicle at the age of 16. He retired from the Chronicle at the age of 60. He was an avid fisherman and hunter at his country get-away located in Lovelady.

Mr. Krusleski was preceded in death by his father, Joseph Krusleski.

He is survived by a brother, James Edward Krusleski, and his life-long friend, Clifford Kalmbach.

Survivors include his mother, Flora Krusleski; two brothers and their spouses, Floyd and Verlene Krusleski and George Allen and Sue Krusleski; three daughters and their spouses, Theresa Lynn and Gary P. Willis, Cheryl Jean Taylor and Denise Fay and Dale Fairbanks; a son, Leon Michael Krusleski Jr. and his wife, Kimberly; eight grandchildren, Travis Hollamon, Brian Taylor, Alex Krusleski, Hunter Krusleski, Jacqueline Olivarez, Laurel Fairbanks, Roger Dale Fairbanks II and Marshall Fairbanks; and a number of other relatives and friends.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that memorial contributions be made to the American Heart Association at (800) 242-8721 or S.N.A.P. at (713) 862-3863.

Heights Funeral Home of Houston directed the arrangements.