LOUISE SEVIER
COLEMAN HUGHES
LACK

Mrs. Louise Sevier Coleman Hughes Lack, one of God's most beautiful creations, was freed from the pain she has endured, with dignity and grace, for the past fifteen years, on December 14, 2002. Mrs. Lack was born in Houston, Texas on November 12, 1938 and she grew up in Crockett and she spent her adult life in Houston, North Carolina, Washington, D.C., and the last five years in Beverly Hills, California. Mrs. Lack was a former member of the Republican women's Club of Highlands, North Carolina, and while in Washington, D.C., was very active in Republican politics and many other cultural affairs. Mrs. Lack was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution, Beverly Hills Garden Club, Los Angeles World Affairs Council, International Circle of the World Affairs Council, and the Los Angeles Orphanage Guild.

Survivors include her mother Alma Turner Sevier, of Crockett; sister Sandra Bash and husband Vincent, of North Carolina; very special sons John Henry Coleman, IV., and Christopher Sevier Coleman and wife Nancy, all of Florida; her most treasured survivor is her granddaughter Hannah Louise Coleman, of Florida; her friend and father of her sons John Henry Coleman, III, of Austin; step-sons Tommy S. Lack, and Fred "Skipper" Lack, all of California; aunt Corrine Collins, of Crockett (Who Louise especially wants to thank for the loving care she has given to "Plum"-Louise's mother); uncle Bill Turner and wife Bea, of Crockett; special cousins Carolyn Surles, Frances Baker, Rufus Lee Turner, Carrie Ballard, and Congressman Jim Turner; sister-in-law Mrs. W. Carroll Latimer, of North Carolina; niece Mrs. Robert J. Smith, of Georgia; life long cherished and precious friend Janis Mathews / Taylor.

Mrs. Lack was met in Heaven by her adored, grandparents, Mama and Papa Turner; and two husbands, D.E. Hughes, Jr. and Fred Lack; father, James Sevier.

Funeral services for Mrs. Louise Sevier Coleman Hughes Lack were held Friday, December 20, at 10:00 a.m. in the First Baptist Church-Crockett with the Rev. John Franklin Shivers, III and the Dr. John La Noue officiating. Interment will follow in the Evergreen Memorial Park in Crockett.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to; Centro Vida Church, Youth Outreach, 2295 E. Fremont Street, Stockton, California 95205.

Young people were very dear to Louise.
