

Patsy J. Ladd

TRINITY -- Services for Patsy J. Ladd, 92, of Trinity were held at 10 a.m. Friday, May 11, 2001, in the Burning Hope Baptist Church in Trinity with the Rev. Jim Parrish officiating.

Burial followed in the Chita Cemetery.

She died Tuesday, May 8, in Tyler.

Born March 7, 1909 in San Juan, N.M., she was in the retail clothing business for many years with Walter Pye's and Joskes. She also operated a sewing machine business and was in real estate. She was known from her style and grace reflected in her everyday life. Friends and family remember her as a very giving person who never had a bad thing to say about anyone.

Survivors include two sisters and a brother-in-law, Peggy Whipple and Rozella and Hubert Dunaway; three nephews and their spouses, Harold and Janie Van Dyke, Charles and Kathy Van Dyke and Melvin and Joann Van Dyke; two nieces and a spouse, Sharon and Mike Jeffus and Nelda Reynolds; and a number of other relatives.

Pallbearers included Charles Van Dyke, Melvin Van Dyke, Harold Van Dyke, Jay Riddle, Steven Brock Jeffus and Danny Van Dyke.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
