Mary Aileen Miller Law

TRINITY - Funeral services for Mary Aileen Miller Law, 91, of Trinity were held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 25, 2006, in the Calvary Baptist Church of Trinity with the Rev. Lewis Jones officiating.

Burial followed in the Thornton Cemetery in Trinity County.

Mrs. Law died Nov. 20 at her home in Trinity.

Born June 25, 1915, in the Saron community, she was the third of nine children born to Clarence and Mary Jackson Miller. She was married to Orin Law in Saron on Oct. 28, 1936.

She resided in a number of Texas cities during her lifetime but spend most of it in Houston. She moved "back home" to Trinity in June 1979 where she was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church.

Mrs. Law loved cooking and was happiest when all of her extended family gathered at her home where she had cooked enough food to feed a small army. She also enjoyed crafts and worked in ceramic and floral shops in Houston.

She was a life member of both the PTA and the ESA Sorority.

She was preceded in death by her parents; two husbands, Orin Law and J.C. Capps; four brothers, Chester Miller, Howard Miller, Pete Miller and Everett Miller; two sisters, Eva Atkinson and Fay Landry; a daughter, Charlene Rosemary Law Carr; and a grandson, David Glenn Reid II.

Survivors include a daughter, Charlotte James of Trinity; a son and daughter-in-law, Robert Orin and Carolyn Law of Glendale; a sister, Irene Lane of Corrigan; a brother and sister-in-law, Autry and Margie Miller of Friday; six grandchildren and their spouses, Daniel and Vicki Reid of Lago Vista, Letitia and Robin Ward of Snook, Emily and Eugene Smith of Onalaska, Terry and Karen Carr of Groveton, Tommy and Bridget Carr of Trinity and Mary McFarland of Glendale; eight great-grandchildren; three great-great-grandchildren; and a number of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

Trinity Funeral Home directed the arrangements.
