CHARLIE FAY LEE

Charlie Lee Fay, 72, a homemaker, passed away on Friday, Feb 23, 2001 at her residence following a long illness.

Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Monday, Feb. 26 in the Forest Ridge Funeral Home in Hurst. Chaplain Paul Glenn officiated. Interment followed in the Weches Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the Salvation Army, the Weches Cemetery Association, Rt. Box 97A, Grape-land, TX 75844, or to Vistas Hospice, 2501 Parkview Dr., Ft. Worth, TX 76102.

Charlie Fay Lee was born March 28, 1928 in Crockett. After graduating from Glover High School in Weches she worked for the Rusk State Hospital. She married Charles Lee on Sept. 14, 1946. She and Charles moved to Bedford in 1967 where they resided until her death.

Charlie was a devoted Christian. She always involved herself in God's work. As a military wife, she traveled throughout the world. She always shared her love of God through doing God's work. Charlie Fay was active in many Protestant Women Groups, through which she embraced the many cultures from a post-war Japan to the refugee camps in Berlin, Germany. In Bedford she often helped with the Salvation Army's homeless feeding program during the holiday season. In her lifetime she has touched so many lives. Through her, our family, has learned the precious gift of giving. She was an active member of the First United Methodist Church of Bedford.

She was a gifted and devoted homemaker, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother.

Her beloved son, David, precedes her in death.

Survivors include her husband, Charles Lee of Bedford; son, Brad Lee and wife, Laurie of Smithville; daughters, Cindy Lee of Bedford, and Lindy Larson and husband, John of Midland; sister, Imogene Cook of Bedford; eight grandchildren, and two great-grandchildren.
