

Jorene Legg

GROVETON -- Services for former District and County Clerk Jorene Legg, 70, of Groveton were held at 10 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 27, 2001, in the First Baptist Church of Groveton with the Rev. Lewis Jones officiating.

Burial followed in the Memorial Oaks Cemetery in Houston.

Mrs. Legg died Tuesday, Sept. 25, at her residence.

Born April 13, 1931 in Trinity, Mrs. Legg was elected as Trinity County's district and county clerk in 1988. When the growth of the county's population forced the office to be split in January 1983, she remained as the district clerk until her retirement in 1990.

She attended Massey Business College and was employed with the U.S. Forest Service for a number years. Mrs. Legg also obtained her real estate license through the University of Houston and worked for a number of years as a real estate broker.

She was preceded in death by her father, Joe Alexander and a sister, Sue Waggoner.

Survivors include her husband of 53 years, Norris "Junior" Legg; her mother, Mary Alexander; two daughters and a son-in-law, Sondra (Tody) and Mike Crofford and Gay Pustejovsky; four brothers and their spouses, Ray and Mary Lou Alexander, Wiley and Norma Alexander, Don and Pat Alexander and Jerry Alexander; a sister, Sandra Cole; grandchildren, Gina and Bo Knowles, Michael Crofford, Ashley Pustejovsky, Arie Pustejovsky and Parker Pustejovsky; great-grandchildren, Mason Mitchell and Taylor Joe Knowles; numerous nieces and nephews; and a number of special friends.

Pallbearers included Parker Pustejovsky, Davy Cole, Robert Waggoner, Michael Crofford, Russell Alexander and Ricky Alexander.

The family has asked that memorial contributions be made to the First Baptist Church of Groveton.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Groveton directed the arrangements.
