

Harold Dean Lindsey

TRINITY — Services for Harold Dean Lindsey, 76, of Trinity were held at 11 a.m. Monday, Aug. 14, 2006, in the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home in Trinity with the Rev. Leroy Brown officiating.

Mr. Lindsey died Friday, Aug. 11, in Trinity.

Born Dec. 18, 1929, in Perryville, he married his high school sweetheart, Mrs. Betty Mills, on Nov. 3, 1950. He retired after 32 years of service with Tennessee Gas Pipeline where he was employed as a drafting supervisor.

Following his retirement, he enjoyed fishing, hunting and camping with friends. He is a past member of the Westwood Shores Men's Golf Association and attended the Chapel in the Pines Church.

He was preceded in death by his father, Roy Lee Lindsey; his mother, Ruby Gladys Corbitt; and a son, Scott Lindsey.

Survivors include his wife, Betty Lindsey; a son and his spouse, Randy Dean and Kim Lindsey; a brother, Derwin Lindsey; and four grandchildren, Allison Lindsey, Michelle Lindsey, Nicholas Lindsey and Brooke Lindsey.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.