William Brooks Lipscomb

TRINITY - A memorial service for William Brooks Lipscomb, 88, formerly of Trinity, will be held at 2 p.m. Friday, Nov. 19, 2004, at the First United Methodist Church of Huntsville with the Rev. Bruce Hay officiating.

Mr. Lipscomb was buried on Wednesday, Nov. 10, in the Lipscomb family plot in Cedar Grove Cemetery in Trinity.

He died Nov. 4 in Huntsville.

Born April 8, 1916, he was the last surviving child of Patrick and Nina Campbell Lipscomb. He was a graduate of the University of Texas and was a retired naval officer. During his career with the U.S. Navy, he served as a PT boat captain during World War II and held a variety of posts in the United States and South America until his retirement.

He was preceded in death by his parents; two brothers, Patrick Lipscomb and Tom Lipscomb; and two sisters, Margaret Lipscomb and Katherine Lipscomb Gay.

Survivors include a number of nieces and nephews.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
