

Chapel and messenger

Jan 14, 1999

Palestine Rites For Gladys O. Lively

Services for Gladys O. Lively, 91, of Palestine were held Saturday, January 9, in the Bailey & Foster Chapel, Palestine, with the Rev. Ray Biggerstaff and Bill Barnett officiating. Burial followed in Strong Memorial Park under the direction of Bailey & Foster.

Pallbearers were Duke Wayne Turner, James Turner, Ben Swinney, John Young, Bill Zeigenhals, Ray Mullen, Bobby Mullen and Matt Syptak. Honorary pallbearers were Steve Jenkins and Phil Jenkins.

Mrs. Lively was born January 20, 1907, in Monroe, Louisiana, to Charley H. and Alma Eva Simpson Turner. She died Wednesday, January 6, 1999, at the Cartmell Home for the Aged in Palestine.

Mrs. Lively received her teachers certificate from Sam Houston State University in 1925 and taught school at Slócum, Livelyville and Percilla. She was the co-founder of the ABC Kindergarten and was a member of the Lone Pine Baptist Church and the church's 39ers Club.

Mrs. Lively was preceded in death by her husband, A. D. Lively Sr.; son, Gary H. Lively; daughter, Virginia Diane Lively; sisters, Millie Gipson and Faye Barbin; and brother, Duke Turner.

She is survived by two daughters, Shirley Milner of Austin and Linda Baxley of Waco; three sons, Morris Lively of Palestine, A. D. Lively of Jefferson and Mike Lively of Splendora; sister, Elizabeth Swinney of Palestine; eight grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.