

Eustice Emanuel Loftis

TRINITY--Funeral services for Eustice Emanuel Loftis were conducted at 10 a.m. Tuesday in the Chapel of the Chimes of Trinity Funeral Home with burial following at 4 p.m. in the Grandview Cemetery in Pasadena.

He was a resident of the Lakewood subdivision.

Mr. Loftis was born March 6, 1918 in Formosa, Arkansas and died December 25 at ETMC Crockett.

He retired from Van Cleve Construction.

Mr. Loftis was a member of the Carpenters Local and the Blue Lodge No. 1155 of Pasadena.

Survivors include his wife, Mildred Loftis of Trinity; sons, Jimmy Loftis and his wife, Jo, of Pearland and Jerry Loftis and his wife, Nancy, of Ferris; five grandchildren and seven great grandchildren; brothers and sisters: Emma Lee Aldredge, Ernie Loftis, Advie and Edsel Loftis.

Members of the Joe Werner Masonic Lodge of Trinity served as pallbearers.

Trinity Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.