

Harold Grady Logan

TRINITY -- Services for Harold Grady Logan, 76, of Trinity were held at 10 a.m. Thursday, Aug. 28, 2003, in the Trinity Pines Baptist Church with Pastor Mark Gray and former Pastor Kenneth Myers officiating.

Burial followed in the Brookline Cemetery in Houston.

Mr. Logan died Tuesday, Aug. 25, in Trinity.

He was born Aug. 31, 1926, in Houston and was a resident of the Trinity Cove Subdivision near Trinity. Mr. Logan was a member of the American Association of Retired Persons, VFW and the American Legion.

Mr. Logan was employed as a real estate sales agent.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Donald Landon Logan.

Survivors include his wife, Ruth Hall Logan of Trinity; a son and daughter-in-law, Donald and Paula Gayle Logan of Houston; a daughter and son-in-law, Phyllis and Michael Clark of Houston; four stepchildren, Duwayne Cason, Michael Mayo, Nad Phyllis Flannagan and Chris; four grandchildren, Kyle, Kim, Brittany and Lance; and several great-grandchildren.

Trinity Funeral Home directed the arrangements.