

Shanekwa Lomax

Saturday Services Set For Young Fire Victim

Memorial services for four-year-old Shanekwa Shantrell Lomax will be held Saturday, November 20, at 2:00 p.m. in the Church of the Living God, Grapeland, with Rev. John L. McKnight and Rev. Delbert Simpson officiating.

Pallbearers will be Marvin McKnight, Bernard McDaniel, Ricky Lomax and Calvin Tillis. Honorary pallbearers will be Dewayne Simpson, Bennie Holmes, Billie Roy Davis, Mitchell Black, Gearld Marquez and Steve Woodard.

Shanekwa Lomax was born October 15, 1995. She lost her life in a house fire on November 13, 1999.

The little girl is survived by her mother, LaShunda Deshaia Taylor; father, Jesse Clifford Lomax Jr.; three sisters, Vericia Lomax of Palestine, Shunte Lomax and Kendra Lomax of Houston; five brothers, Orlando Owens, Devin Lomax, Alexandrell Owens, all of Grapeland, Terry Lomax and Jesse Lomax III, both of Palestine; grandfathers, J. C. Lomax of Grapeland, Ira Davis of Palestine and Mitchell Black of Grapeland; grandmothers, Christine Simpson of Grapeland, Georgia Davis of Palestine and Ethel Lomax of Grapeland; aunts, Charolette Lomax of Tyler, LaQuita Reshaia Simpson, Zelda Daniels, both of Grapeland; and uncles, Dewayne Simpson of Palestine and Ricky Lomax of Grapeland.