

Elizabeth Mae “Betty” Long

LIVINGSTON – Funeral services for Elizabeth Mae “Betty” Long, 64, were held Sunday, May 20, 2007, in the Cochran Funeral Home Chapel, with the Rev. Frank Hood officiating.

Mrs. Long died Thursday, May 17, at her residence in Livingston.

She was born Oct. 23, 1942 in Darby, Pa., the daughter of George and Mary Williams Berger. She was preceded in death by her father. Mrs. Long was known as an adoring wife, mother, grandmother, mother-in-law, daughter, sister, aunt, niece, cousin and friend, who was a beautiful person inside and out.

Survivors include her husband, Donald Long of Livingston; sons, James Long of Newark, N.J. and John Long of Livingston; daughter, Deborah Ray of Porter; mother, Catherine Berger of Las Vegas, Nev.; sisters, Georgia Steinfals of Las Vegas, Nev., Gini Spalding of New Jersey and Laura Maiura of Missouri; brother, Robert Berger of Alaska; daughter-in-law, Melissa Long of Livingston; granddaughter, Callie Long of Livingston; son-in-law, Steven Ray of Porter and numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.