

Trinity Standard

April 7, 2005

Pearline Hathorn Luce

GROVETON - Services for Pearline Hathorn Luce, 90, of Nogalus Prairie were held at 10 a.m. Monday, April 4, 2005, in the Calvary Baptist Church in Nogalus Prairie with Bro. James Whittlesey officiating.

Luce died Saturday, April 2, in Nogalus Prairie.

She was born Nov. 23, 1914, in Nogalus Prairie and was a homemaker. She was preceded in death by her husband, Archie Luce; and a son, R.L. Luce.

Survivors include six daughters and their spouses, Marie and Sheldon Prothro of Australia, Dorothy and Steve Warren of Porter, Betty and J.W. Jones of Center, Virginia and James Odom, Darlene and James Whittlesey and Elaine Rooney, all of Nogalus Prairie; two sons and their spouses, David and Polly Luce of Glendale and Danny and Eva Luce of Oklahoma; two brothers, Loyd Hathorn of Channelview and Emery Hathorn of Houston; a sister, Margie Odell Brown of Bryan; two sisters-in-law, Ruby Hathorn and Evelyn Hathorn of Channelview; 21 grandchildren; 42 great-grandchildren; and 15 great-great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Mike Prothro, Ronald Odom, Rusty Warren, Mark Luck, Kenneth Jones and Daniel Luce. Honorary pallbearers included Luke Whittlesey, Randy Odom, Glen Wayne Jones, Wopody Luce, Rex Warren, Keith Luce and Wayne Goldman.

The family has asked that memorial contributions be made to the Calvary Cemetery or the Calvary Baptist Church in Nogalus Prairie.

Groveton Funeral Home directed the arrangements.