

Grapeland Messenger

3-2-2000

Mc-Carter

Luce Services Are Held Here

Funeral services for Troy Lee Luce, age 79, of Grapeland were held Friday, February 25, at the First Baptist Church, Grapeland, with Rev. David Bradley officiating. Burial followed in McCarter Cemetery under the direction of Bailey & Foster.

Mr. Luce died Wednesday afternoon, February 23, 2000, at Palestine Regional medical Center. He was born on June 3, 1920, in Houston County to Jesse E. Luce and Willie Marshall Luce. Mr. Luce was retired from Champion Oil Corporation as personnel manager. He was a veteran of World War II and served with the U. S. Army. Mr. Luce was a member of the First Baptist Church in Grapeland.

In addition to his parents, Mr. Luce was preceded in death by his wife, Georgia Mae Williams Luce; two sisters, Jessie Mae Lednicky and Velma Brown; seven brothers, Quincy Chandler, George Luce, Earl Luce, William Luce, Frank Luce, Travis Luce and Buddy Luce; and a grandson, Travis Luce.

Survivors include two daughters, Inez Barnett of Grapeland and Ann L. Vickers of Houston; four sons, Jessie Lee Luce of Grapeland, Troy Neal Luce of Bryan, Larry Luce and Bobby Wayne Luce, both of Corpus Christi; six grandchildren; and one great grandchild.