

Grapeland Messenger 12/18/2005

Sandra Kay (King) Lusk

Funeral services for Sandra Kay (King) Lusk were held December 2, 2005 at 11:00 a.m. at Two Mile United Methodist Church with Ray Charles Emanuel officiating. Interment followed in the Paradise Cemetery in Leona, Texas. Emanuel Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

Pallbearers were Emory Jewel Davis, Ryan O. Baker, Michael D. Long II, Stevin Long, John E. Nealey and Tracy Jackson.

Honorary pallbearers were former classmates and friends.

Mrs. Lusk passed away on November 28, 2005 in Houston. She was born July 26, 1955 in Leona, Texas to Johnnie Lue King and Doretha Mae (Johnson) King. She graduated from Centerville High School. She received her Post Secondary (BS) Degree from Prairie View A&M University and her MA from Texas Women University in Denton, Texas. She was the librarian at Regan High School in the Houston Independent School District. She grew up in Two Mile United Methodist Church, but was currently a member of the St. Mary's United Methodist Church. Mrs. Davis was a member of the Houston Library Association and the Texas State Teachers Association.

She was preceded in death by her father and mother; father-in-law, General C. Lusk; grandparents and other aunts, uncles and cousins.

She is survived by her husband, Melvin C. Lusk of Houston; son, Sheldon A. Lusk of Houston; daughter, Millicent A. Lusk also of Houston; mother-in-law, Verna Lusk; brother, Johnny C. King and wife, Joyce of Lancaster, Texas; sisters, Amberee (King) Baker and husband, Earl, Jacqueline (King) Woods and husband, Kenneth, Wanda Kay (King) Davis, Jesselyn (King) Long and husband, Michael; sisters-in-law, Marvia (Lusk) Robertson and Gwendolyn (Lusk) Gibson; aunts, Quincy Wood, Norvis Dell King, Bernice Whitfield and Thelma Coleman (C.B.); uncles, Sammy L. Richardson; 6 nephews; 5 nieces; 8 great nephews; 2 great nieces; other relatives and friends.