

Geneva Macoubrie

TRINITY -- Services for Geneva Macoubrie, 75, of Trinity were held at 2 p.m. Friday, Oct. 26, 2001, in the Dorcas Wills Memorial Baptist Church with the Rev. Leroy Brown officiating.

Burial followed in the Cedar Grove Cemetery in Trinity.

Mrs. Macoubrie died Tuesday, Oct. 23, in Conroe.

She was born Jan. 15, 1926 in Glendwood Springs, Ark. She was preceded in death by her husbands, Grady Youngblood and David Macoubrie; a son, David Youngblood; and a daughter, Donna Sue Souchon.

Survivors include two daughters, Linda Gunnels and her husband Leo, of Trinity, and Tina Youngblood, and her fiancée, Mark Karolzak, of Spring; a sister and brother-in-law, Melva and Kenneth Allee; two brothers and sisters-in-law, Joe and Ruth Mize and Bobbie and Sylvia Mize; 10 grandchildren and their spouses, Kimberly Gunnels, Michelle and Greg Vick, Michael and Chesney Gunnels, Gregory and Kelli Gunnels, Don Gunnels, Ron Gunnels, Eric Youngblood, Kristin Cuevas, Tiffany Cuevas, Ryan Cuevas; eight great-grandchildren; one niece and several nephews; and special friends, Lillian Combs, Dorothy Mercer and Robbie Morgan.

Pallbearers included Mike Gunnels, Greg Gunnels, Don Gunnels, Ron Gunnels, Greg Vick and Kenneth Allee Jr. Honorary pallbearer was Ryan Cuevas.

Waller-Thomson Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.