

Trinity Standard

Dec. 2, 2004

Maggie L. Maxey Madden

GROVETON — Services for Maggie L. Maxey Madden, 90, of Apple Springs were held at 1:30 p.m. Sunday, Nov. 28, 2004, in the Groveton Funeral Home Chapel.

Burial followed in Bennett Cemetery.

Mrs. Madden died Thursday, Nov. 25, in a Lufkin hospital.

She was born Nov. 21, 1914, in Carmona, the daughter of Sarah Covington and John R. Maxey. She was a homemaker and a member of the Apple Springs Baptist Church.

Mrs. Madden was preceded in death by her husband of 54 years, Louis Madden.

Survivors include two daughters and a son-in-law, Carolyn Elizabeth Kendrick of Houston and Lindy (Mylinda) and Tilton Ray Warren of Apple Springs; two grandchildren, Elton John Robert of Falls Church, Va., and Nena VeeRee Robert Deets and her husband, Stephen, of Cypress; five great-grandchildren, Jacqueline Robert and John Elton Robert, both of Falls Church, Va., and Tristin, Brenden and Jaron Deets, all of Cypress; and a number of other relatives and friends.

Pallbearers included Elton John Robert, Howard Maxey Jr., Joe David Maxey, Jerry Eagleson, Billy Cox, Roy Lyn Madden and Coy Minshew. Honorary pallbearers were C.C. "Punk" Parrish, Oreal Watson, Johnny Merle Maxey and Fred Russell Maxey.

Groveton Funeral Home directed the arrangements.