

Trinity Standard
4-8-2004

Delton Lee Mann

TRINITY -- Services for Delton Lee Mann, 70, of Trinity were held at noon on Monday, April 5, 2004, at the Burning Hope Baptist Church in Trinity with the Rev. Jim Parish officiating.

Mr. Mann died Saturday, April 3, in Conroe.

Born June 30, 1933, in Homer, he was a former resident of Lufkin. At the time of his death, he was a resident of Avalon Place nursing home in Trinity.

Mr. Mann was a U.S. Marine veteran of the Korean Conflict and was a self-employed painter and carpenter.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Jeannett Mann; three brothers, Stonewall Mann, Thomas Mann and Wiley Frank Mann; and a sister, Madge Mannley.

Survivors include a daughter and her spouse, Karen Dell and Dewey Wischart; three sons and their spouses, George Adrian and Alison Mann, Arthur Martin and Pamela Mann and Timothy Alan Mann; a stepson, Darrell Wayne Goolsby; a step-daughter, Evelyn "Sally" Holden-Enders and her husband, Gerald; a brother and sister-in-law, George Mann and Maggie Mann; five grandchildren, Tabitha Jeanette Mann, Olivia Dawn Mann, Josiah George Mann, Tanya Renee

Mann and Naomi Elaine Mann; two great-grandchildren, Breigh Ann Goolsby and Kendall Wayne Goolsby; and a number of nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.