

MR. LUTERS MARK, SR.

Mr. Luters Mark, Sr., was born September 4, 1904 in Nigton, Texas, one hundred two (102) years ago. Sam and Priscilla Mark could not have imagined that their bouncing baby boy would live over a century! He was a pillar of the "Nigton Community".

Mr. Mark had been joined in Holy Matrimony to the late Clemmie Black in 1931. To this union there were eight children born: Libby Miller, Alice Mitchell, Billie Alford, Eddie and Elmer Mark with two daughters and a son preceding him in death, Troy Gillis, Sammie Jenkins, and Luters Mark, Jr. Mr. Mark was also preceded in death by his wife, Clemmie Mark.

Luters found Christ at an early age. He was the oldest Deacon of Mayo Baptist Church, Nigton, Texas, until his health failed. Mr. Mark was a Christian, loving husband, father and upstanding member of the community. He had an ear for those in need of counsel and, imparted gentle words of wisdom to live by.
