

Apr 2, 2000

HCC

JAMES "BUCK" MARSHALL

Mr. James Buck Marshall, age 87 of Grapeland, passed away March 16, 2000 in Crockett. Mr. Marshall was born Sept. 2, 1913 in Grapeland to the late Ed Marshall and Mary Burns Denby.

Mr. Marshall attended the Cedar Branch Public School and joined the Cedar Branch Baptist Church at an early age. Mr. Marshall was united in Holy Matrimony to the late Sarah Calhoun. To this union, three children were born.

He later moved to Houston and joined Fourth Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of Rev. E. Stanley Branch, where he served on the usher board, trustee board and the choir. He was a Mason. He later returned to Crockett and joined Friendship Missionary Baptist Church, under the leadership of the Rev. T.W. Berry.

He leaves to cherish his memories Roy Marshall and wife ~~Mary~~ daughters Delois and husband Joe and Ivo Lee Campbell and husband James; brother Herman Marshall and wife Willie Mae; sisters Arnie Bell Burks of Crockett, Ivo Lee Neal of San Antonio and Erma Hicks of Houston; 15 grandchildren; 34 great-grandchildren; seven great-great-grandchildren; a devoted niece, Hazel Cobb and husband Maxie; special devoted granddaughters Delois Parker and husband Albert Betty Cooper and husband Perry both of Houston; devoted friends Dennis Hicks of Crockett, Samuel Groves, Nancy Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and the Rev. Paul Giddings, all of Houston; the friends and staff of Crockett Care Center; a host of nieces, nephews other relatives and friends who will always be in remembrance of his gentle smile and warm heart.

Funeral services for Mr. Marshall were held Monday, March 20, at 1:30 p.m. at Bethel Missionary Baptist Church with Delvin Atchison, pastor and Earnest Jackson officiating. Final resting place Jasper Cemetery, Crockett.

Active pallbearers were Roy Marshall, James Campbell, Joe Davis, Sr. grandsons, grandsons-in-law, great-grandsons.

Barkley Mortuary

Jasper