

Trinity Standard
9-16-2004

William Derrell Martin

TRINITY - Services for William Derrell Martin, 65, of Trinity were held at 10 a.m. Thursday, Sept. 2, 2004, in the Trinity Funeral Home of the Chimes with Terry Bryan, pastor of the Midway Tabernacle, officiating.

Burial followed in George Cemetery near Normangee.

Mr. Martin died Tuesday, Aug. 31, in the Huntsville Health Care Center.

Born July 26, 1939 in Normangee, he was a resident of the Trinity Cove addition east of Trinity. He was employed as a contractor/home builder and served for many years as president of the Trinity Community Fair Association.

Survivors include his wife, Fanchen Louise Bryan Martin; seven children and their spouses, John and Debra Howell of Dodge, Opal and Terry Coleman of Midway, Ronnie Howell of Dodge, Derrell Martin Jr. of Trinity, Darnell Corliss of Huntsville, Darrell Wayne and Stayce King of Huntsville and Thomas Martin of Smithville; four brothers and their spouses, Curtis and Sharon Martin of Longview, W.C. and Mary Jane Bearden of Madisonville, A.L. and Diane Martin of Houston, Taft and Helen Martin of Houston; two sisters and their spouses, Pat and Kenneth High and Jeanette and Gordon King, all of Houston; nine grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren.

Pallbearers included Ted Wallace and Derrell Wayne King.

Trinity Funeral Home directed the arrangements.