

Martone

Anthony Joseph Martone, 91, and wife, Lois Helen (nee: Miller), 90, of Livingston, Texas, formerly of North Haledon, New Jersey, died on Wednesday, May 23, 2007, both of natural causes. They were the parents of Robert A. Martone of Livingston, Marilyn Greig of Wayne, New Jersey, Denice Good of Garden City, Kansas, and Darlene Crane of Kingwood, Texas; brother of Frank Martone of Paterson; grandfather of 12 and great-grandfather of 24. Mr. and Mrs. Martone were born in Paterson, New Jersey, and lived 56 years in North Haledon, New Jersey before moving to Texas in 2004. Mr. Martone was the owner of Martone's Barber Shop, Wayne, New Jersey, for over 56 years until his retirement life. He once performed vaudeville and appeared with Lou Costello of Abbott and Costello fame and learned and performed top dance through Radio City Music Hall in New York City. Both were parishioners of St. Paul's RC Church, Prospect Park, New Jersey. Tony was a member of St. Paul's Knights of Columbus. Lois was an only child of Dutch/German descent and became a wonderful Italian cook. The funeral will depart Browning-Forshay Funeral Home in Hawthorne, New Jersey, at 8:45 a.m. Thursday, followed by a 9:30 a.m. mass at St. Paul's RC Church, Prospect Park, New Jersey. Interment will be in Calvary Cemetery, Peterson, New Jersey. Donations in lieu of flowers may be made to: Mothers Against Cancer, 5807 Juniper Knoll, Kingwood, Texas 77345.
