

Virginia Baize McBryde

TRINITY -- Services for Virginia Baize McBryde, 65, of Trinity were held at 10 a.m. Saturday, Nov. 15, 2003, at the Dorcas Wills Memorial Baptist Church of Trinity.

A second service also was held at 3 p.m. Saturday at the Pine Ridge Baptist Church in Sour Lake.

Burial followed in the Pine Ridge Cemetery near Sour Lake.

Mrs. McBryde died Wednesday, Nov. 12, at her Trinity residence.

She was born Oct. 17, 1938, in Pine Ridge, daughter of the late Harliss and Alma Jordan Baize. She was a graduate of Sour Lake High School and earned a bachelor of arts degree in education from Lamar University in Beaumont.

She was employed by the Hardin-Jefferson Independent School District for more than 23 years and retired from the Kline ISD after teaching elementary school there for nine years.

Following her retirement, she moved to Trinity and enjoyed spending time on Lake Livingston with her husband and close friends. She was a member of Dorcas Wills Memorial Baptist Church of Trinity.

Survivors include her husband of 46 years, Charles H. McBryde of Trinity; a daughter and son-in-law, Patricia and John Anderson; a son and daughter-in-law, Wayne and Carol McBryde; a sister and brother-in-law, Gail and Nick Miller; and four grandchildren, Casey, Katherine, Michael and Christopher.

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked that memorial contributions be made to the Ethel May Dietschman Memorial Foundation, P.O. Box 8441, Huntsville, Texas 77340.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Trinity directed the arrangements.
