

KRIS MCCALL

HCC 5/1/2005

Mr. Kris McCall, age 23 of Oakwood, passed away Saturday, April 23, 2005 in the East Texas Medical Center-Tyler. Mr. McCall was born June 14, 1981 in Crockett and had lived in the Centerville area most of his lifetime and had resided in Oakwood for the past 4 years.

Mr. McCall was currently employed by Turner Industries as a journeyman pipe fitter. Mr. McCall was a member of the New Salem Baptist Church and had recently been attending the New Life Tabernacle in Midway.

Mr. McCall was very involved in playing guitar, singing, and writing songs which was his main joy. Mr. McCall was extremely close with his wife and son and loved to be around close friends, also loved to fish and hunt. Mr. McCall was a young man who loved life and a daily basis, he thought of his wife and son and his smile affected people because they knew that his life was full of love, commitment, and faith.

Survivors include his wife Melissa McCall, of Oakwood; son Walyn McCall, of Oakwood; parents Bro. Mac and Joann McCall, of Centerville; sister Kristina Brent and husband Joe, of Centerville; nieces Kyla and Madison Brent, of Centerville; grandparents Harvey and Juannelle Suttle, of Centerville; grandmother Nora Chastian, of Macon, Ga.; great-grandmother Hattie Belle Suttle, of Centerville; mother-in-law LaShawn Myers, of Houston; grandparents-in-law James and Lillian Pickett, of Centerville; and numerous other relatives and friends.

Preceded in death by his father-in-law Mike Myers in 2002; and grandfather Leonard McCall in 1989.

Funeral Services Mr. Kris McCall were held Wednesday, April 27, at 11:00 a.m. in the Central Baptist Church with the Rev. Harry Burge and the Rev. Terry Gibson officiating. Interment followed in the North Creek Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Melissa and Walyn McCall Fund, 11460 F.M. 3178, Oakwood, TX. 75855.

Callaway-Allee Funeral