

Glenwood
54215

Gary Mac McClain

GROVETON -- Services for Gary Mac McClain, 60, of Woodlake were held at 11 a.m. Friday, Sept. 19, 2003, at the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home Chapel in Groveton with the Rev. Lewis Jones officiating.

Burial followed in the Glenwood Cemetery.

Mr. McClain died Tuesday, Sept. 16, at his residence.

He was born May 18, 1943, in Orange, the son of the late Thomas Edgar McClain and Nona Friday Tipton. He was a member of the First Baptist Church in Groveton.

Survivors include two daughters and sons-in-law, Shelly and George Sofka and Dana and Doe Tracy; a brother and sister-in-law, Charles and Brenda McClain; two sisters, Peggy and John Haggard and Ginger and Tommy Freeman; aunts and uncles, Reba and Deino Hawthorn and Gene McClain; five grandchildren, Brittany Moore, Whitney Moore, Madison Sofka, Cole Parker and Savannah Tracy; a special friend, Vivian Kersh; and a number of nephews, nieces, great-nephews, great-neices, cousins and friends.

Pallbearers included Jabo West, Jimmy Cochran, Jimmy Smith, Steve Casper, Stu Pot Parker and Tommy Gilmore. Honorary pallbearers were Mike McClain, Ricky Parker, Mark Evans, Randall Shaw, J.W. Reynolds, Eddie Dean Kennedy, Louis Snyder, Tommy Bryan, Ronnie McCarty and Sammy Turner.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Groveton directed the arrangements.