

LEON
MCCULLOUGH JR.

Mr. Leon "Bookey" McCullough Jr. was born March 27, 1972 in Houston, the first born of Leon Sr. and Loyce Bean McCullough. He attended the Aldine public schools. He was a member of Greater Faith Baptist Church. He passed away on Jan. 25 at Herman Southwest Memorial Hospital in Houston.

Survivors include wife, Kecia Pennywell McCullough; son, Michael Terry McCullough; daughters, Kayla and Leah; parents, Leon and Loyce McCullough; sister, Felicia Renne McCullough; brother, Fredrick Anthony McCullough Sr. all of Houston; grandmothers, Iver Bean of Crockett, and Floretta McCullough of Houston; six aunts, Brenda Gainous, Pearlie Selders, Janie Groves, Claudette Harrell of Houston, Linda Green of Conroe, Sherrion Lane of Huntsville, L'rena Smith of Killeen, Lois Washington, and Freddie Jones of Crockett; six uncles, Willie don McCullough of Washington D.C., Raymond Duren, and Keith McCullough of Houston, James Allen of Fort Worth, McKinley McCullough Jr. and Autrey Bean of Crockett; two nieces, three nephews, numerous cousins, friends, and special friend, Jeremy Potts.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Jan. 27, 11 a.m., New Pleasant Grove Missionary Baptist Church, Hwy 19 South, Crockett, the pastor Rev. Fred Foster officiated. Eternal resting-place was in New Pleasant Grove Cemetery, Crockett.

Casketbearers were Charles Jones, Tyrone Washington, Michael Washington, Rennard Bean, Cranston Bean, and Jeremy Potts.

McClain-Cleburn
Funeral Services