

ELMER "MAC" MCIVER

Mr. Elmer "Mac" McIver age 73 of Austonio, passed away Tuesday, November 20, 2001 in the East Texas Medical Center-Tyler. Mr. McIver was born October 22, 1928 in Solcum and had been living in Austonio for the past 22 years. He was a veteran of the U.S. Army having served during the Korean Conflict. Mr. McIver was a retired electrician and a member of the IBEW Local 716. He was a member and past Worshipful Master of the Angleton Masonic Lodge #829, the El Mina Shrine Temple in Galvestine, and Scottish/York Rite, and had served as Past District Deputy #31. Mr. McIver was also a member and past Worthy Patron of the Order of the Eastern Star #54 in Angleton. He was a member of the Austonio Baptist Church.

Survivors in wife Velma Jean McIver of Austonio; daughters Pamela Ann Foster and husband, Larry of Austonio; Patti Sue Biggs and husband, Michael, Sr. of Austonio; grandchildren Stephanie Fabacher and husband, Raymond of Austonio; Nikki Walker and husband, Vic of West Columbia; Michael Biggs, Jr. of Granbury; Patrick Cody Biggs of Austonio; Rebecca Jaen Biggs of Austonio; great-grandchildren Tiffany Foster, and Lacy Foster, sister Evelyn McIver of Huntsville; brother Charles McIver of Anahuac; niece Betty Liebert and husband, Bob of Point Blank; numerous other relatives. Preceded in death by grandson, Stephen Wayne Foater in 1985; And parents, Chester and Ruby McIver.

Funeral services for Mr. Elmer "Mac" McIver were held Saturday, November 24, 2001 at 10:00 a.m. in the Callaway-Allee Memorial Chapel with Rev. Frank Oswald officiating. Masonic graveside service followed in the Boggs Cemetery.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home

***

Boggs