

HCC
Apr 20, 2002

JAMES NOVEL
MCKINNEY

James Novel McKinney, age 83 of Conroe, passed away April 14, 2000 in The Woodlands. Mr. McKinney was born Feb. 2, 1917 in Houston.

Mr. McKinney was a Methodist but attended Baptist services most of his life. He had previously lived in Dallas, Houston, Pasadena and Crockett before moving to Montgomery. He was retired from Operating Engineers Local 450. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge #21 AF & AM of Crockett, Chapter 455 RAM Council #374 RSM Pasadena, Park Place Commandery #106 Knights Temple of Texas, OES Chapter #509 of Crockett.

Survivors include wife Anna Ramon McKinney of Conroe, sons James Wreatham McKinney and wife Carolyn of Elkhart and Charles Glen McKinney and wife Glenda of Montgomery, grandsons Gregory Paul McKinney and wife Johana of Grapeland, Curtis Wayne McKinney and David Lynn McKinney, both of Conroe, several step-grandchildren and step-great-grandchildren; special friends Patsy Ann McKinney and Shirley McKinney.

Funeral services for Mr. McKinney were held Monday, April 17 at 11 a.m. at the Claybar Waller Ramsey Chapel with the Rev. E.P. Ramsey, Jr. officiating. Interment followed in the Oakwood Cemetery, Waco at 3 p.m.

Claybar • Waller-Ramsey
Funeral Home