

William Blair McPherson

TRINITY -- Services for William Blair McPherson, 52, were held at 2 p.m. Monday, Dec. 3, 2001 at the Walker-Thornton Funeral Chapel with the Rev. Larry Bewley officiating.

Mr. McPherson died Friday, Nov. 30, at his residence.

He was born Oct. 13, 1949 in Austin, the first of four children. He was very active in the Boy Scouts for many years and was an Eagle Scout. He was employed by R.J. Reynolds for several years and by Brown and Williamson.

Retiring early because of Lupus, he spent the last several years singing country western music.

Survivors include his son, Eric Blair McPherson of Stroud, Okla.; a daughter, Cheryl Elaine Fields of Grapevine; his parents, Rowena and Bill McPherson; three brothers and their spouses, Roger and Valicia McPherson of Westminster, Colo., Brady Jay and Melody McPherson of Anchorage, Alaska, and Gregory Reed McPherson of Trinity; two foster children, Mark Everett Smith and Floyd Leroy Smith; five grandchildren; and a number of cousins, other relatives and friends.

Walker-Thornton Funeral Home directed the arrangements.
