

Measles

Funeral services for DeLois Ann Measles, 63, of Moss Hill, on Friday, June 29, 2007, at Sterling Funeral Home Chapel in Dayton, with the Rev. Harold Davis officiating. Burial followed in the Hardin Chapel Cemetery.

She was born February 27, 1944 in Liberty, the daughter of Jessie Fregia Sr. and Edna Nugent Fregia. She was a member of the VFW Ladies Auxiliary, and was a homemaker. She loved music, especially Elvis, dancing, singing and fishing.

She is preceded in death by her parents; a sister, Ermma Mobley; two brothers, Frank Allen Fregia and William Weldon Fregia; half-brother, James Fregia; and son-in-law, Lonnie Joe Rao.

Survivors include her husband, Clement C. Measles; two daughters, Teresa Measles and Loretta Measles Rao; grandson, Kelby Rao; brother, Aubrey Fregia Sr.; half-brother, Jessie Fregia Jr.; and numerous other relatives and friends.

To view and sign the guest book, go to www.sterlingfuneralhome.com.

Sterling Funeral Home, Dayton, was in charge of arrangements.