

John Braxton Miller

GROVETON -- Services for John Braxton Miller, 79, of Trinity were held Saturday, May 15, 2004, in the Waller-Thornton Funeral Home in Groveton.

Burial followed in Chita Cemetery.

Mr. Miller died Tuesday, May 11, in Trinity.

He was born March 8, 1925, in Covington County, Alabama and was a U.S. Army veteran of World War II.

Survivors include his wife of three years, Lillian Miller; two sons, Donald Braxton Miller of Dayton and Ronald Wayne Miller of Baytown; a daughter, Patty Sue Master of Oxford, Ala.; an adopted daughter, Virginia Amanda Miller of Groveton; three step-daughters, Stacy Ringo Dunaway of Trinity; Lillian Thysson of Post Falls, Idaho, and Catherine Smith of Post Falls, Idaho; a step-son, Eddie Ringo of Trinity; two brothers, Malcolm Miller of Brewton, Ala., and Charles Clifford Miller of Rose Hill, Ala.; four sisters, Alice Estelle Ramer of Eustis, Fla., Willie Mae Gay of Tallahassee, Fla., Bertha Mae Martin of Andalusia, Ala., and Foye Hensarling of Deltona, Fla.; eight grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren; 11 nephews; and 12 nieces.

Waller-Thornton Funeral Home of Groveton directed the arrangements.