lived in Houston.

Miller died June 29, 2004, at her new home near Trinity following a long illness.

She was born March 23, 1944, in Fort Worth and was a long time resident of Houston. She also briefly resided in Nacogdoches.

Mrs. Miller was a career employee of American Alloy Steel Co. of Houston until ill health forced her retirement. She was a 1962 graduate of Bellaire High School in Bellaire and volunteered for a number of years at the Houston International Seamen Center.

Besides spending time with her grandchildren, her greatest joy was baking cakes and giving them to her friends and family.

She was preceded in death by her mother, Bess Atkinson Weaver; her father, Millard Weaver; and a very special cousin, Dr. Kate Bell of Trinity and Houston.

Survivors include her daughter and son-in-law, Melissa and Garrett Williams of Austin; a sister and brother-in-law, Tory and Bob Free of Nacogdoches; three grandchildren, Tyler, Elizabeth and Jesse Williams; a niece and her spouse, Rebecca and Isreal Cortez of Katy; a nephew, Greg Free of Nacogdoches; a number of cousins, Mickey and Leslie Adkins of Trinity, Gin-and George Calk of Friendswood, Anna and Clayton Hester of Groveton, Dona and Buddy Smith of Groveton, John Atkinson of Houston, Justin Adkins of Huntsville, Jodi and Clint Adkins of Trinity, Joetta and Clayte Adkins of Edna and Katie and Ford Adkins of Onalaska.

Trinity Funeral Home directed the local arrangements.
