

Houston County Courier Sunday 7/11/1999

WILLIAM TRAVIS
MOORE

Mr. Travis Moore, age 93 of Crockett, passed July 4. After a long a productive life, he was laid to rest beside his first wife, Myrtle Maybell Hill Moore (Potsy). He was preceded in death by his second wife, Kathleen Williams Moore.

Mr. Moore was born in Crockett 93 years ago at 401 North Seventh Street, the home in which he lived most of his life. It was previously the home of C.W. and Hunter Leaverton Moore, his parents.

Mr. Moore was an electrical contractor for over forty years and during World War II, he served on the Draft Board and remained in Crockett as the designated electrician for Houston County and brought electricity to many rural homes in the area under the REA.

He was a charter member of the Crockett Elks and served as their secretary for twenty-five years. He was also a member of the United Methodist Church of Crockett.

Mr. Moor is survived by his daughter, Susie Moore King; nieces Virginia Moore English and Patsy

Moore Mize and great-niece Bonnie McConnico Ramsey of Stephenville.

The family requests that anyone wishing to make a memorial contribution make it to the Crockett Public Library.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home

Set