

HCC 2/18/2001

LOUIS T. MORGAN

Center

88654

Mr. Louis T. (L.T.) Morgan, age 77, of the Center Hill community near Kennard, passed away Friday, Feb. 8, 2001 at the East Texas Medical Center in Crockett. Mr. Morgan was born in Center Hill on Feb. 4, 1924. He graduated from Kennard High School, served as a Staff Sergeant in the South Pacific with the 550th Night Fighter Squadron in WWII, and returned from the war to earn a degree in Agriculture from Texas A&M in 1950. During a 30 year career as a surveyor with the U.S. Corps of Engineering and Forest Service, he worked throughout Alaska and most of the western states. After retirement to his farm in Center Hill, he enjoyed raising cattle and chickens, working in his garden, tending his flowers, and feeding the birds. Mr. Morgan was a lifelong avid reader, with a special interest in stories of the West. He was a beloved, faithful member of the Center Hill Methodist Church. Working outdoors for most of his life, Mr. Morgan possessed a deep love for the land and was most at home working in his garden and enjoying the animals he raised and the wildlife around his farm. He was a special human being, touching the lives of his friends and relatives with his kind spirit. He will be greatly missed by all those who knew him.

Survivors include sister, Bernice Foster of Hunnigton; brother, John Neil Morgan of Kennard, and numerous nieces, nephews.

Mr. Morgan is preceded in death by his father, Lewis Thomas Morgan; mother, Effie Ratledge Morgan Sellars; sister, Esther Mae Willis; brothers, Norman, Morris, and Frank Lee Morgan.

Funeral services for Mr. Morgan were held at the Center Hill Methodist Church at 2p.m. on Feb. 11, 2001 with the Rev. Doug Howell officiating. Interment followed in the Corinth Cemetery near Kennard.

In lieu of flowers, contributions in Mr. Morgan's memory can be made to the Center Hill Methodist Church.

Callaway-Allee Funeral Home