

Deloris Mosley

PASADENA – Deloris Mosley, 78, of Pasadena died Saturday evening, Nov. 10, 2007, in San Jacinto Methodist Hospital in Baytown.

Ms. Mosley was born May 31, 1929 in Dallas. She was an employee of Weingarten Groceries in Houston for 30 years, was a Cub Scout den mother and Girl Scout leader, volunteered with the church ladies group, Prayer Chain Warrior, and volunteered with Hook N Needles in Livingston.

She is survived by her son, Gerald Mosley and his wife Jana of Pasadena; daughter, Anna Hawkins and her husband Raymond of Livingston; sister, Kay White; three grandchildren, Nicholas Mosley, Wesley Hawkins and Amber Mosley and two great-grandchildren, Breeana Hawkins and Rebecca Hawkins.

She was preceded in death by her mother and father, Jack and Sudie Dudley Wheeler and one sister, Jean Graham.

Services were held Wednesday, Nov. 14, in the Pasadena Funeral Chapel, with interment following in Abbey Mausoleum at Forest Park Lawndale Cemetery.