

Murphy

Memorial services were held Thursday, April 12, 2007 for Walter Murphy, 83, of Dayton, at the Pace-Stancil Funeral Home in Dayton.

He was born October 10, 1923, the son of Daniel and Sara Alexander Murphy, and has resided in the Dayton area throughout his life. He served in the United States Navy and worked for Red Arrow Trucking Company for several years and for a construction company. After retiring Walter would spend most of his days gathering with friends and talking of old times. He was humble and later on in his years more friendly than ever.

Mr. Murphy passed away on April 1 at his residence. He was preceded in death by his parents; and one brother, Madison Murphy.

Survivors include his daughter, Terri Ford of Spokane, Washington; grandson, Marcus Ford of Spokane, Washington; Mackey and numerous nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

Pace-Stancil Funeral Home, Dayton, was in charge of arrangements.
