Beulah E. Nash

TRINITY -- Services for Beulah E. Nash, 87, of Trinity were held at noon on Wednesday, Sept. 10, 2003, at the Trinity Funeral Home.

Burial followed in the Vick Family Cemetery in New Caney.

Mrs. Nash died Saturday, Sept. 6. She was born March 5, 1916, and resided for most of her life in the Humble and North Houston areas before retiring to Trinity.

She was known during her life for her humanity and the care she provided for many others. She raised her siblings and later her husband's siblings while working at various jobs.

In her retirement in Trinity, she volunteered many hundreds of hours of her time.

Survivors include a son and daughter-in-law, Dennis and Cindy Jones of Conroe; a sister, Pearl Smith of Humble; two granddaughters, Denise DelVecchio and her husband, Stephen, of Garland, and Jennie Miller of Philadelphia, Penn.; and numerous great-grandchildren, nephews, nieces and cousins.

Trinity Funeral Home directed the arrangements.
