Neely

The children of Lynd Neely, a local “dad” and “Paw Paw” to all from Daisetta, celebrate that their dad has gone on join his Lord, family and friends in Heaven.

Lynn Edward Neely, age 86, of Daisetta, died on November 14, 2007, at the home of his daughter, Renee in Magnolia, with his children at his side.

Funeral services were held on November 17 at 10:00 a.m. at the Allison Funeral Service Chapel, with the Rev. Bill Mosley officiating. Burial was in the Guedry Cemetery, Batson.

Lynd was born on November 5, 1921 in Daisetta, the son of Marshall J. and Francis Ward Tabor Neely. He graduated from the Hull-Daisetta High School and was a Staff Sergeant in the U.S. Army, 82nd Airborne Division, during World War II. He married Tessie Maurine Lloyd on May 7, 1949 in Hull. He was a pipe fitter, a construction superintendent, and a member of the First Baptist Church. Lynd was a rancher and enjoyed his cows. He was an “arm-chair” quarterback at fixing up anything.

Lynd is preceded in death by his parents, wife, Tessie Neely; a brother, Jack Neely; four sisters, Pansy Hood, Betty Joyce Robinson, Vivian Horton and Marshall Davidson; and a grandson, Carter Logan Crews.

Survivors include a son, Lynd E. “Bud” Neely II and wife, Barbara, of Chapel Hill, Texas; three daughters, Peggy Tidwell and husband, Alan, of Hardin, Patricia Jane “PJ” Peddy and husband, Terry, of Sour Lake and Diane Renee’ Crews and husband, Steve, of Magnolia; nine grandchildren, Scott Alan Tidwell and wife, Elaine, Kori Lyn Hutson and husband, Larry, Rusty Alan Tidwell, Lyndsay Elyse Neely, Zachary William Neely, Joe Peddy and wife, Sherry, Laurie Robbins and husband, Jay, Trent Lynd Gressett Peddy and Connor Lloyd Crews; six great-grandchildren, Matthew Morgan, Hayden, Jacob, Lancy and Joshua; many nieces, nephews, friends and other relatives.

In lieu of flowers, the family has requested that donations be made to the Hull-Daisetta Volunteer Fire Department, P.O. Box 639, Daisetta, Texas 77533 in memory of Lynd Neely.
