

San Jacinto News

2-3-2008

NICHOLSON

Services for Mrs. Ruby A. (Isaacks) Nicholson, 79, of Carthage, Texas, were held Tuesday, January 29, 2008 at New Shady Grove Missionary Baptist Church with the Rev. Steven Hill officiating. Interment followed on Wednesday, Jan. 30, 2008 at the Wells Family Cemetery in Shepherd, Texas.

Mrs. Nicholson was born October 4, 1928 in Cleveland, Texas. She was the oldest of five children born to the marriage of Arba and Katie Roberts Nicholson. Mrs. Nicholson was a graduate of Conroe High School and was a Native Texan. Ruby married Charles "Nick" Nicholson and together they owned and operated Nicholson's Meat Market and celebrated 44 years together. She was the "Best Gal in the World." Mrs. Nicholson was a member of New Shady Grove Missionary Baptist Church and the Order of the Eastern Star, Conroe Chapter #710. She loved to cook and over her lifetime collected over 1100 cookbooks. Mrs. Nicholson is preceded in death by her parents, one daughter, Charlene Nicholson, brother, A.J. Isaacks, and a sister, Maxine Griffith.

Survivors include her loving husband: Charles N. Nicholson; sons Richard A. Wells and wife Rona, Sidney L. Wells and wife Rhonda, Royce G. Wells and wife Ruby, Leslie L. Wells, Jr.; daughters Waynette DuBose and husband Jimmy, Mary M. Murphy and husband Charles; brother Leo Isaacks and wife Doris; sister Bea Mayberry and husband Vandel; 16 grandchildren; numerous great grandchildren and great, great grandchildren, other relatives and a host of friends.

Honorary pallbearers were Royce Wells, Sidney Wells, Leslie Wells, Mike Flynn, Jr., Dwayne Wright, Dusty Baker, Grandchildren, Great Grandchildren, and members of New Shady Grove Missionary Baptist Church.