RAY NICOLAIDES

Ray Nicolaides, age 96, of Crockett, passed away Saturday, Oct. 24, 1998 in Crockett. Mr. Nicolaides was born Dec. 24, 1901 in Union County, Ill. Mr. Nicolaides had lived in Crockett for many years. He was retired from the University of Texas Medical School on Galveston. He served his country in World War II in the United States Navy. Mr. Nicolaides was a very soft spoken quite man with a dry sense of humor. But you knew he was a Christian. He and his wife, Jenny supported missionaries, pastors, and students throughout the world with their prayers and contributions. They both were known to give unselfishly and unconditionally of God's love to everyone everyday of their lives. Even after Mr. Nicolaides was unable to speak, God used his life to minister to others. You could be assured that Mr. and Mrs. Nicolaides would always pray with you and for you. They were two very wonderful people that God put in all our lives. You could not think of one without the other.

Mr. Nicolaides was preceded in death by his wife, Martha Jane Morrison Nicolaides, she was the love of his life.

Survivors include many relatives in Utah, Missouri and Illinois.

Funeral services for Mr. Nicolaides were held Sunday, Oct. 25 at 4 p.m. in the Waller-Ramsey Family Chapel with the Rev. Jimmy Bennett officiating. Interment followed in the Latexo Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Jim Selman, Troy Selman, A.J. Selman, Jimmy Bennett and friends.
